

YOU might be interested to know—we'd like to have you know—why we make a special feature of

Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

It's because we want to do the best we can for our own business; we're fishing about it, you see. We know that we'll do the best we can for ourselves by doing the best we can for you.

The best we can do for you is to buy what will give you the biggest possible value for your clothes-money. When it comes to that we have the whole market before us; we can buy and sell any clothes we want to; manufacturers welcome our orders. We know what's in the market; we want Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes because they're the best clothes made; best for you to buy; best for us to sell.

They have style that's distinctive; different; they're made always of all-wool fabrics; they're perfectly tailored; they fit accurately. We feel that we're doing a man a favor to sell him such clothes; we're making a profit for him as well as for ourselves. We stand back of them, confidently knowing they'll satisfy; and ready, if they don't, to make good.

That's why we sell Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes; that's why you'll buy them. That's why we call our store the home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes.

Pig's Foot Jelly.

Take the liquor in which the pig's feet have been boiled, strain, and set away to cool until next day. Remove grease then return to fire, add to each quart of jelly one-half pound of white sugar, juice of two lemons, a little cinnamon bark, and whites of two eggs. Boil all together about 15 minutes, strain again in a bowl, and set in a cool place. It will keep a long time. It can be eaten with cake and also cream. It is strengthening for invalids.

Fancy Blanc Manger.
Heat 1½ cups milk in a double boiler. Mix four level tablespoons of cornstarch with one-half cup of cold milk and stir into the hot milk. Cook five minutes, stirring constantly to keep the mixture smooth. Then add one-third cup of sugar and cook five minutes more. Beat the whites of three eggs until stiff and stir into the cornstarch lightly. Add flavoring. Take a spoonful of this mixture in a cup, add a speck of color, either yellow or green sufficient to give a delicate tint. Put this in the bottom of the mold after rinsing the mold in cold water. In a few minutes pour the rest in the mold. Set away to harden. Make a boiled custard with the yolks of the three eggs, one pint of milk, one-third cup of sugar. Cook until it begins to thicken. Flavor.

Fruit Cake with Cornmeal.

Cream together a half cup of brown sugar and one-half cup of butter and then moisten with a cup of strong coffee and a cup of molasses, a teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, of allspice and of cinnamon, each. Add one beaten egg and two cups of sifted flour with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and two cups of cornmeal. Beat hard for five minutes and stir in a pound of currants, half a pound of seeded raisins, cut in half, a pound of ter of a pound of chopped citron. A few candied cherries may be added if wished. Turn into a round pan lined with greased paper and bake in a slow oven. Frost with chocolate frosting and top with tiny shavings of candied orange peel tied with orange colored baby ribbon and dot with popped corn.
